Important Information for Readers & Authors

- All online content searchable through the Google search engine.
- APS Journal content indexed on MEDLINE and accessible through PubMed.
- APS Journals indexed by Index Medicus, Biosis Previews, and ISI Web of Science.
- Free access to the extensive collection of back issues available online 12 months after publication.
- Free email notification of new tables of content as it becomes available.
- Perpetual/Electronic Archiving of the LOCKSS and CLOCKSS systems preserves the electronic content of all APS journals.
- APS participates in CrossRef initiative which links to over 5,600 journals worldwide.
- Authors can choose to pay a fee on top of regular author fees and have their article made free immediately ($2,000 for research articles and $3,000 for review articles).
- Legacy Content available as an online package of over 100 years of historical scientific research from 13 APS research journals.
- RSS Feeds available as a mechanism to subscribe to “headlines” from a web site.
CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

For the Editorship of the

American Journal of Physiology-Lung Cellular and Molecular Physiology

Nominations are invited for the Editorship of American Journal of Physiology-Lung Cellular and Molecular Physiology to succeed M. Matthay, who will complete his term as Editor on December 31, 2011. The Publications Committee plans to interview candidates in the Spring of 2011.

Applications should be received before January 15, 2011.

Nominations, accompanied by a curriculum vitae, should be sent to the Chair of the Publications Committee:

Hershel Raff, Ph.D.

APS Members are individuals worldwide whose work focuses on a wide variety of disciplines devoted to human and animal health and function—including systems biology, genomics, translational research and all other life sciences.

These members possess advanced degrees (Ph.D., D.V.M., M.D., etc.). However, individuals who hold a masters degree will be considered on a case-by-case basis. The majority of this international membership hold doctoral degrees in physiology, medicine, or other health professions; and they are employed in universities, hospitals, industrial organizations, medical schools, private foundations, and government.

APS also has Student and Affiliate members. Visit our web site at www.the-aps.org for more information and a detailed list of membership benefits.

Member Benefits

Your Professional and Career Development

APS embraces a wide variety of disciplines devoted to human and animal health and function—including systems biology, genomics, translational research and all other life sciences.

Meet like-minded colleagues through the following distinctive groups and programs:

- Serve on APS sections—and—APS committees
- Serve on special interest groups
- Organize an APS conference
- Serve on FASEB boards and committees
- Participate in APS honors and awards programs
- Participate in APS education programs
  - Professional Skills Training Courses
  - Mentoring
  - Science Fair Awards

Your Source for Information Services

- Free online access to the current content and legacy content of 13 APS research journals (this legacy content is an online package of over 100 years of historical scientific research, and is normally $2,250 for nonmembers)
- Free essential color figures to APS members (Regular and Student) who are first or last authors of articles published in any APS journal
- Free print subscriptions to 3 of APS’s 15 research journals (Physiology, Advances in Physiology Education, and The Physiologist)—and over 50% discount on the other 12 APS print research journals
- Up to 75% discount on APS scholarly books
- 20% discount on subscription to Annual Reviews
- Over 30% discount on subscription to the AAAS Signal Transduction Knowledge Environment
- Online access to the FASEB Directory of Members
- Subscription discount for The FASEB Journal

Your Access to the Scientific Community

- Discount registration rates for Experimental Biology
- Discount registration rates for APS Conferences
- Specialized listservs

Free Necessary Color for Member Authors

The APS Research Journals...
- American Journal of Physiology (AJP consolidated)
- AJP-Cell Physiology
- AJP-Endocrinology and Metabolism
- AJP-Gastrointestinal and Liver Physiology
- AJP-Lung Cellular and Molecular Physiology
- AJP-Heart and Circulatory Physiology
- AJP-Regulatory, Integrative and Comparative Physiology
- AJP-Renal Physiology
- Advances in Physiology Education
- Journal of Applied Physiology
- Journal of Neurophysiology
- Physiological Genomics

Regular or Student Members of the American Physiological Society (APS) who are first or last authors of articles in any of the APS research journals get Free scientifically necessary Color.

These APS journals are listed on the left. If you are not yet an APS Member and are planning to submit a manuscript that requires color to any of these journals as a first or last author, then you need to apply for membership today in APS.

We provide several convenient ways to apply for Membership. Just go to our website and select your choice at: www.the-aps.org/membership/application.htm
